

Homework & Reflection - Week 3

Reflect and write down the answers to the following questions:

1. What have you learned this week?
2. Why are statistics important in medicine?
3. Why are statistics important in business?
4. How can you use statistics in your career?
5. What are the differences between the different statistical tools?
6. Which statistical methods will you use in your research project? Why?